Written Summary

The Conrad Family built this house. Jessie Thomas Conrad, known as "Jessie Pete," was the most recent occupant. Conrad died around 1975 at the age of ninety and left the house to a member of the Beroth family, who sold it to the current owners (Langdon Oppermann, Winston-Salem Northern Beltway report, 1991, p. 133).

Chipwood Lane has been developed since 1979 survey. This two-story, three-bay, side-gable-roofed log house was moved to the east when a circa 1980s Ranch house was constructed. Both houses occupy the same tax parcel. The log dwelling has weatherboards in the gable ends, six-over-six sash windows, and a brick chimney executed in four-to-one common bond on the south end. The front and rear entrances were once sheltered by full-width porches (HF).

This property was determined ineligible for the National Register after evaluation for NCDOT project R-2247.
